Art in the Park

It is World Autism Awareness Day on 2 April. Autism West Midlands will be creating Art in the Park at Cannon Hill Park to raise awareness for autism. This is a great opportunity to explain your own autism journey. Art supplies will be provided. Some of the artwork that is created on the day will be auctioned during April to raise vital funds to support families. This is a free event which is running alongside the Rainbow Walk. No need to book for Art in the Park - just bring your imagination and creativity and turn up on the day from 1pm.
